

INTRODUCTORY CIRCLE TRAINING

“EMBRACING DIVERSITY & COMMUNITY BUILDING”

Attend the Peacemaking Circles workshop and learn about a process that celebrates our individual and collective experiences as a means to learn and create solutions. It has been used in several communities and companies to create an open, safe environment for making decisions, managing conflict, working through disagreements and creating a healthy work culture. Get training from an expert in the Circle Process, Saroem Phoung. Saroem has extensive experience in training and facilitating group dialogue on a national level for over 16 years. He has worked with the faith community, nonprofit, for-profit, criminal justice system, law enforcement, school and the Native American community. In doing this work, Saroem honors the Tagish Tlingit people.

Space is limited. Please register at www.pointonenorth.com/registration.

The training is intended for a variety of participants from businesses, community groups, government agencies, schools, nonprofits and for profit corporations.

For More Information, e-mail info@pointonenorth.com or Contact Saroem at 781.346.5040

P.O. Box 14041 Seattle, WA 98114 | www.pointonenorth.com

SAVE THE DATES

THURSDAY
March 17th
9AM-5PM

FRIDAY
March 18th
9AM-5PM

SATURDAY
March 19th
9AM-5PM

Training Benefits

- Provides an effective way to communicate and manage conflict
- Builds and strengthen relationships
- Fosters open dialogue and better communication
- Encourages values-based action
- Facilitates innovative problem solving
- Builds community connections
- Creates collaborative solutions

LOCATION: Urban Impact
7728 Rainier Ave. S, Seattle WA.

Fees: $300/person
Price includes lunch and refreshment.

Group discount and partial scholarships are available upon applying.